Dear Community Member:

Every Voice Choirs, a not-for-profit youth choral program based at Teachers College, Columbia University, will launch its on-line auction on April 9th. In order to make its programs widely accessible, Every Voice Choirs charges tuition well below its operating costs, provides needs-based scholarships to families, and gives free community concerts. Will you help by donating goods or services?

The Every Voice Choirs encourage and empower children to sing themselves and speak their truth, and to be proud of their identity, culture, and community. With the belief that Every Voice Can Shine, EVC is one of the only children's choirs in New York City that does not require a vocal audition to join. They teach kids that their voices matter, nurturing singers' diverse musical abilities with training by distinguished faculty. EVC singers improvise, write songs, conduct themselves, and learn to be musical -- and community -- leaders. Learn more about EVC at www.everyvoicechoirs.org.

With tuition covering less than 1/3 of operating costs, EVC depends on fundraisers to be able to provide empowering musical training to children. On behalf of the children of Every Voice Choirs, we thank you in advance for your support.

With gratitude,

Every Voice Choirs Auction Committee
